

Privileged information

(Adopted by the Council of Trustees December 10, 1991;
Amended April 19, 2005; Amended January 26, 2010)

The diocesan office maintains mailing lists, financial, and other sensitive information of parishes and diocesan institutions for the use of the church in this diocese. Except for the information published annually in the diocesan Journal, all of this is considered to be “privileged” information, and should be used with pastoral care and sensitivity.

It is the policy of the Council of Trustees that parish and diocesan mailing lists which are used for circulation of The Harvest to every Episcopal Church home in the diocese are not available for solicitation nor for any other purpose except with the consent of the Bishop or advance permission in writing of the Rector / Vicar or Senior Warden in charge of a congregation.

It is the policy of the Trustees and its members that it and they will not divulge any financial information contained in the annual Parochial Report or any other report required by the national church, the Diocesan Convention or the Trustees of the Diocese, or any other information in the possession of the diocesan office and the constituent agencies of the Diocese of Kansas except that published annually in the diocesan Journal, without the permission of the Ecclesiastical Authority.
