Things you should know about being a New Beginnings Rector before applying: Please read this section completely.

Being a New Beginnings Rector is fun and very rewarding. However, it will require commitment on the part of those who want to participate. These are some things you should know before applying. New Beginnings will be held April 20-22, 2012.

1. The New Beginnings Coordinator will interview rector candidates and make selections in cooperation with adult members of Diocesan Youth Commission.
2. New Beginnings rectors should be in their junior or senior year at the time of the event.
3. Being a Rector will place a significant demand on your time.
4. There may be several meetings prior to New Beginnings that will require travel to meet with the New Beginnings Coordinator and your co-rector(s).

Please prayerfully consider this commitment. If you're still fired up, then complete the rest of the application.

Please answer the following questions thoroughly on a separate sheet of paper. Typed entries are preferred.

1. What staff positions have you previously held at New Beginnings?
2. Why do you wish to be rector for New Beginnings 2012?
3. Which of your strengths would make you a good Rector?
4. What strengths would you hope for your fellow rector(s) to possess, which may not be your strengths?
5. In your opinion, what is the best thing about New Beginnings?
6. In your opinion, what is the thing in most need of improvement at New Beginnings?
7. What else do you want us to know about you?

* Finally, please include a letter of recommendation from your priest or another person in your parish who is not a family member.
